

INCARNATE

Often, many churches could be considered keepers of aquariums or poachers of another's.

I believe God is calling our churches to launch out into the deep, missionalising our people into the depth of our communities.

It was once put to our church that if we closed tomorrow, would our community know.

This sent us on a journey of immersing ourselves into our community. Today we are deeply involved in many aspects of our society.

Why don't you join with us in this exciting journey and let's discover the future together.

Life Church is all about uncluttered Christianity that presents Jesus in a real way. Life does church on an extremely different level, working with the grass roots of society—with people that don't normally come to church.

We run things such as live jazz venues including a licensed restaurant and art exhibitions, and exotic beer nights, book launches, wine degustation and corporate business functions. We also minister among the marginalized of our community with our Soul Café where we feed more than 700 free hot meals a week. We also run many recovery programs, such as A.A. G.A. and S.A. that bring change into peoples lives.

NIKKI CORREIA

Nikki has an amazing story, one of transformation from a life of drug addiction to a life of serving Jesus through what is probably one of Australia's most Incarnational expressions of the local church. Her past has given her the understanding of others and her connection to God gives her the power to influence them. Look for 'Soul Café' on Facebook.
